Statement from the Minister of Health on Clubs which Support Sporting Activities

Port-of-Spain, September 17th, 2020: The public is advised to take note of the following:

The Minister of Health has granted an exemption to clubs which operate to support sporting activities, save and except, that such sporting activities are group contact sports and/or team sports.

The exemption is with respect to regulation 4(1)(b) of the Public Health [2019 Novel Coronavirus (2019.nCoV)] (No. 28) Regulations, 2020 (“the Regulations”).

This exemption permits clubs which support sporting activities, which are not group contact sports and/ or team sports, to operate. These clubs and their members must operate in accordance with the remainder of the Regulations.
